Al Masdar News (12 February 2020)

The Iraqi Armed Forces announced on Wednesday morning the start of the first phase of the Iraqi Heroes operation on the borders with Syria and Jordan.

The Iraqi security forces said in a statement this morning that the security forces continue their duties in combating security challenges and protecting Iraq from any threat by assessing the situation and implementing military operations in a planned manner according to intelligence requirements.

The Chief of Staff of the Army, First Lieutenant General Uthman Al-Ghanimi, and the Deputy Commander of Joint Operations, Lieutenant General Abdul Amir Rashid Yarallah, chaired an operational security meeting at the Al-Jazira Operations Command that included operations leaders, representatives of the armed forces and the Security Media Cell, they said.
