The two main parties in Bosnia's Federation entity have reached an agreement on how to divide the entity's share of 333 million euro ($372 million) in International Monetary Fund (IMF) emergency funding for the country, local media reported on Tuesday.

The agreement which the Party of Democratic Action (SDA) and the Croatian Democratic Union (HDZ BiH) reached late on Monday with the help of international mediators clears the way for Bosnia's state-level government to put the issue on the agenda of its June 2 cabinet meeting, news agency Patria reported.
