
UK'S IRAQ WAR CRIMES PROBE DISMISSES THOUSANDS OF COMPLAINTS

-

03.06.2020

Al Jazeera (2 June 2020)

All but one of the thousands of complaints linking British soldiers to Iraq war crimes have been dropped, according to an independent investigator looking into the allegations in the United Kingdom.

Andrew Cayley, director of the Service Prosecuting Authority, told BBC radio on Tuesday that it was "quite possible" that none of the original allegations would lead to a prosecution.

Cayley did not provide details of the allegation in the remaining case.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: