
IRAQ TO POSTPONE GENERAL ELECTIONS BY FOUR MONTHS

-

20.01.2021

VOA News (19 January 2021)

Iraqs Cabinet members voted unanimously Tuesday to postpone this years general elections from June 6 until October 10, according to the state news agency INA.

The decision came after the countrys electoral commission urged more time to organize the polls in order to conduct free and fair elections. The postponed vote would still be a year earlier than the official end date of parliaments term in 2022.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: