
HONG KONG ACTIVIST AGNES CHOW RELEASED ON PROTEST ANNIVERSARY

-

14.06.2021

Al Jazeera (12 June 2021)

Hong Kong democracy activist Agnes Chow was released Saturday from prison on the second anniversary of the city's huge democracy rallies, with police out in force and protests now all but banned.

Two thousand officers have been placed on standby after social media calls for residents to commemorate the failed democracy demonstrations.

Authorities have maintained a coronavirus prohibition on public gatherings despite the city recording just three local infections in the last month.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: