President Joe Biden told fellow Indo-Pacific leaders assembled for a four-country summit Tuesday that they were navigating a dark hour in our shared history due to Russias brutal war on Ukraine and he urged the group to make greater effort to stop Vladimir Putins aggression.

This is more than just a European issue. Its a global issue, Biden said as the Quad summit with Japan, Australia and India got under way.

While the president did not directly call out any countries, his message appeared to be pointed, at least in part, at Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi, with whom differences persist over how to respond to the Russian invasion.
