Global Times lashes out at Seoul after its embassy complained about the tabloids coverage of President Yoons visit to the US.

Chinas state-run Global Times has lashed out at the South Korean embassy after it sent a letter to the tabloid criticising its coverage of South Korean President Yoon Suk-yeols visit to the United States.

In an editorial on Monday headlined This newspaper has something to say about S. Korean embassys protest', the English-language tabloid bristled at a strong protest sent to its editors last week by Seouls embassy in Beijing.
