The Iraqi Minister of Oil, Hayan Abdul-Ghani, discussed on Saturday the development of joint oilfields with the Iranian Minister of Petroleum, Javad Owji.

The two officials met in Algeria during their participation in the seventh summit of the Gas Exporting Countries Forum (GECF), according to the Iraqi News Agency (INA).

The two sides talked about possibilities for mutual collaboration between Iraq and Iran in the areas of infrastructure development, gas and oil production, and collaborative investment in their shared oil fields.
