Armenia continued to reject on Friday Azerbaijan's statements making a peace deal between the two nations conditional on major changes to its constitution and other laws.

Senior Armenian and Azerbaijani officials sparred over the matter during a panel discussion held as part of an international security forum in the Turkish city of Antalya.

Hikmet Hajiyev, Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev's top foreign policy aide, said Baku is still awaiting Yerevan's clear answers regarding legal provisions which it says contain territorial claims to Azerbaijan.
