Ukraine's parliament has approved President Volodymyr Zelensky's biggest government reshuffle of cabinet ministers since Russia launched a full-scale invasion in February 2022.

Andrii Sybiha, a 49-year-old former diplomat and ex-adviser to President Zelensky, was appointed as foreign minister in the revamp, which saw nine new ministers take office.

The shake-up had been expected for months, with much of the president's cabinet left holding office in an acting capacity after a spate of resignations and dismissals.
