India and Kuwait on Sunday agreed to elevate the bilateral relationship to a "strategic partnership," according to an official statement.

Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi met with Kuwait's Emir Sheikh Meshal Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah during his two-day visit, which is the first visit of an Indian prime minister to the gulf nation in 43 years.

The leaders recalled the strong historical and friendly ties between the two countries and re-affirmed their full commitment to further expanding and deepening bilateral cooperation, the Indian Foreign Ministry said.
