A senior Armenian lawmaker complained on Tuesday that Azerbaijan is making it harder for Prime Minister Nikol Pashinians administration to enact a new Armenian constitution by continuing to publicly demand such a change.

Azerbaijani Deputy Foreign Minister Elnur Mammadov reiterated on Monday that an Armenian-Azerbaijani peace deal is conditional on a change of Armenias constitution which Baku says lays claim to Nagorno-Karabakh.

We are waiting for Armenia to overcome the main obstacle in the settlement process by legally abandoning territorial claims to Azerbaijan through constitutional changes, he told the UN Human Rights Council in Geneva.
