Azerbaijans Minister of Foreign Affairs, Jeyhun Bayramov, met with his Saudi Arabian counterpart, Prince Faisal bin Farhan Al Saud, during his official visit to Saudi Arabia.

The meeting began with one-on-one discussions, followed by an expanded session involving both countries delegations. The sides discussed bilateral and multilateral ties, cooperation within regional and international organizations, and developments in the Middle East, News.Az reports via the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

The ministers emphasized that mutual respect and high-level contacts between the leaders of Azerbaijan and Saudi Arabia provide significant momentum to bilateral ties. Highlighting cultural proximity, historical friendship, and mutual respect, support, and understanding, both sides stressed the importance of such visits and contacts in further strengthening relations.
