CNA (11 March 2025)

South Korea's acting President Choi Sang-mok said on Tuesday (Mar 11) that United States President Donald Trump's "America First" policies had started targeting his country.

Choi said discussions with the United States over tariff measures and stronger cooperation on energy and shipbuilding were beginning ahead of "reciprocal tariffs" set to take effect on Apr 2.

The US President announced a global regime of reciprocal tariffs on all US trading partners from Apr 2.
