Iraqi News Agency (13 March 2025)

During an emergency meeting held on Thursday, Iraq's National Security Advisor called on the United States to reconsider its decision to suspend support for international organizations operating in Iraq.

A statement issued by the media office of the National Security Advisor, received by the Iraqi News Agency (INA), stated: "Under the direction of Prime Minister Mohammed Shia al-Sudani, the National Security Advisor held an emergency meeting with all ministers involved in the areas of work identified in the letter of the UN Secretary-General to the Prime Minister, regarding the Al-Amal Center, Al-Hawl Camp, and the file of Iraqi families returning from northeastern Syria. The meeting discussed the impact of amending US funding for UN programs in Iraq."
