AVİM'S Note: It has been a tradition that almost every state official who is visiting Armenia also visits the "Genocide Memorial". As can be seen from Lavrov's last visit to Armenia, this tradition has not been fulfilled. Lavrov sent a wreath to the memorial, but did not visit it. Considering the recent developments, Lavrov's refrain from visiting the memorial is noteworthy and his stance -in a roundabout way- aligns with Pashinyans questioning of the genocide narrative.
