EU Observer (28 May 2025)

Images keep appearing, each reaching new heights of horror. Reports from the UN, independent experts, and NGOs are piling up, all unanimous. Statements from Israeli officials leave no doubts regarding their intentions.

Since World War II, no genocide has been so well-documented, yet so long ignored by Western powers.

It took a year-and-a-half of war crimes being committed, 52,928 people being killed, including 15,613 children, 119,846 people being injured, including 34,173 children, and 470,000 people facing famine, for EU foreign affairs chief Kaja Kallas to finally announce that the European Union will review its association agreement with the state of Israel.
