Plane, known as Wing of Zion, brought Israeli ambassador to Greece from Tel-Aviv, reports media

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's official aircraft, known as Wing of Zion, has been placed at the flight information region (FIR) in Athens after transporting the Israeli ambassador to Greece on Friday.

The plane brought Noam Katz to Athens after commercial air traffic to and from Tel Aviv airport was suspended following Israel's massive attack on Iran, CNN Greece reported, citing sources in the Foreign Ministry.
