
GREECE TOPS NATO DEFENCE SPENDERS AS TURKEY TENSIONS DRIVE STRATEGIC PUSH

-

26.06.2025

TradingView (25 June 2025)

Greece is once again among the top NATO defence spenders, with fresh data showing the Mediterranean nation allocated 3.1% of its GDP to military expenditure in 2024.

Only four NATO members spent a greater share of their national output on defence: the US, Poland, Latvia, and Estonia.

While these figures reflect broader regional anxieties over Russias actions in Ukraine, Greeces motivations are more complex — rooted in a long-standing and unresolved rivalry with Turkey.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: