Daily Sabah (6 July 2025)

Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan is representing Türkiye at the two-day 17th BRICS Leaders summit, which began in Brazil's Rio de Janeiro on Sunday.

The summit comes amid rising geopolitical tensions, including the recent Israeli and U.S. strikes on Iran, which has been a BRICS member since 2024, along with the genocide in the Gaza Strip and the war in Ukraine.

The return of Donald Trump to the White House and his renewed tariff threats have also raised concerns for the group.
