President Erdoğan marked the 51st anniversary of the Cyprus Peace Operation, vowing lasting support for Turkish Cypriots

We were in the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus with President Tayyip Erdoğan's delegation to attend the ceremonies marking the 51st anniversary of the Cyprus Peace Operation, which brought peace and tranquility to the island of Cyprus.

As in previous years, President Erdoğan joined the July 20 Peace and Freedom Day celebrations with a large delegation. When the aircraft carrying the president – call sign TUR – arrived in the TRNC, it was escorted by F-16s.
