Daily Sabah (1 August 2025)

Slovenia said on Thursday it will impose an embargo on exports, imports and transit of arms to Israel, becoming the first European country to do so over the war in Gaza.

The announcement came two weeks after the EU nation declared Israeli ministers persona non grata.

The measure was announced by Prime Minister Robert Golob after a government session. Golob said that Slovenia was the first European country to make such a move, the state news agency STA reported.
