The Turkic world needs a corridor for direct communication, and that corridor is the Zangezur Corridor, said Turkish Ambassador to Azerbaijan, Cahit Bağcı, in a statement from Baku.

Azerbaijan, as the victorious side, is rightfully asserting the necessity of opening the Zangezur Corridor, as stipulated in the 2020 agreement, he stated.

For the first time since 1937, there will be direct communication between Turkey, Azerbaijan, and the broader Turkic world, the Turkish diplomat emphasized, adding that the timing and conditions of its opening depend on an agreement between the two countries, as sovereign states.
