AZERBAIJAN CELEBRATES NAVY DAY TODAY

Caliber (5 August 2025)

Azerbaijan marks Navy Day on August 5.

The Navy in Azerbaijan began to take shape after the British forces left the country in August 1919, Caliber.Az reports via local media.

Until that time, the defence of the western shores of the Caspian Sea had been provided by British warships. The vessels of the Caspian Naval Fleet had been seized and taken to Port-Petrovsk, only to be returned following the arrival of the British in Baku in November 1918.
