Rubio, Djuric discuss importance of de-escalating tensions in Western Balkans(), particularly with Kosovo, says State Department.*

US Secretary of State Marco Rubio and Serbian Foreign Minister Marko Djuric on Wednesday discussed the importance of de-escalating tensions in the Western Balkans, with a particular focus on Kosovo and Bosnia and Herzegovina, according to the State Department.

The two also discussed ways to advance regional stability and set the stage for economic growth and prosperity, it said in a statement.

(*) AVİM considers the term "Western Balkans" to be a politically motivated separatist terminology and insists on the use of the geographical and historical identification "Balkans" regarding the region.
