Lawyers of Republika Srpska President Milorad Dodik plan to challenge Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina's decision in Constitutional Court.

The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina (CEC BiH) decided to revoke the mandate of Republika Srpska President Milorad Dodik on Wednesday.

The commission met in Sarajevo and unanimously voted to remove Dodik from office after Bosnia and Herzegovinas Appeals Panel of the Court upheld his one-year prison sentence and a six-year ban on holding public office.
