2 Himalayan neighbors have recently taken several steps to stabilize bilateral relations, strained since fall of 2019.

China on Monday said Foreign Minister Wang Yi's trip to New Delhi was an opportunity to enhance political trust with India as the two Himalayan neighbors discuss disputed border issues.

Beijing is willing to take the opportunity of Wang's visit to India to work together with the Indian side in implementing the important consensus reached by the leaders of the two countries, maintain the momentum of high-level exchanges, enhance political mutual trust, strengthen practical cooperation, properly manage differences, and promote the sustained, healthy, and stable development of China-India relations, Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Mao Ning told reporters in the Chinese capital.
