Tajikistans Transport Minister Azim Ibrokhim and Chinas Ambassador to Tajikistan Guo Zhijun discussed advancing key international transport corridors, including China-Tajikistan-Uzbekistan-Turkmenistan-Iran-Türkiye-Europe and China-Tajikistan-Afghanistan, Trend reports via the countrys Ministry of Transport.

The sides also addressed Tajikistans access through neighboring countries to international seaports such as Irans Chabahar and Pakistans Karachi, as well as cooperation under the Belt and Road Initiative.

The parties agreed to accelerate the construction of two-level roads at key intersections in the capital city. According to the ministry, technical and economic feasibility studies for these projects have been completed and are being reviewed with the Chinese side. Once approved, construction work will begin following tender procedures.
