Daily Sabah (20 October 2025)

New Turkish Cypriot President Tufan Erhürman announced he would work in cooperation with Türkiye in foreign policy, while Turkish officials pledged to continue to demand rights for the TRNC

A new era is set to begin in the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus (TRNC) as the opposition defeated incumbent President Ersin Tatar in Sundays elections.

Tufan Erhürman of the Republican Turkish Party (CTP) declared his victory at a rally in a public park late Sunday and underlined that their cooperation with Türkiye would continue.
