Armenian and Azerbaijani delegations held a bilateral meeting in Istanbul, Türkiye, on November 18 as part of the 23rd Autumn Meeting of the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly.

The meeting took place based on the agreement reached during discussions between the Speaker of the Armenian Parliament, Alen Simonyan, and his Azerbaijani counterpart, Sahiba Gafarova, on October 21 in Geneva, the Armenian parliaments press service said in a statement.

During the meeting, the parties emphasized the positive role of the Washington Summit and exchanged views on the agreements reached, the next steps aimed at strengthening peace between Armenia and Azerbaijan, and the importance of parliamentary support in both countries for the process.
