Chinas Foreign Minister Wang Yi will embark on a three-nation trip to the United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia, and Jordan this week, an official statement said Thursday.

The five-day trip will begin on Friday, with the first stop likely in Abu Dhabi, which comes at the invitation of Wangs UAE counterpart Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan, the Chinese Foreign Ministry said.

Later, Wang will travel to Riyadh at the invitation of Saudi Arabian Foreign Minister Faisal bin Farhan Al Saud.
