According to Armenias justice minister Srбуhi Galyan, the relevant authorities hold facts about the Catholicos of All Armenians. She appeared to refer to unflattering information, although she did not specify anything in her interview with a local TV channel. She said the government will make them public if society demands it and if circumstances allow.

Earlier, Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan answered MPs questions about his drive to reform the church. He said:

I dont need a Catholicos who answers to me. I need a Catholicos who does not answer to a senior lieutenant of a foreign intelligence service and who does not report daily to lieutenants of a foreign intelligence service.
