Foreign ministers of the European Union are set to discuss Armenia at a December 15 meeting, the EUs High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, Vice-President of the European Commission Kaja Kallas, told reporters.

Kallas said the EU will explore ways to assist Armenia ahead of next years parliamentary elections, noting that the country has requested support in preventing foreign interference, Armenian media cited by Caliber.Az.

Earlier, Kallas warned that Russia has been intensifying a disinformation campaign targeting Armenia in the lead-up to the 2026 elections.
