At a session of the second convocation of the Majlisi Namoyandagon of the Majlisi Oli (the lower chamber of the Parliament of Tajikistan), deputies approved an agreement between the governments of Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan, Trend reports via the press service of the Tajik Lower House of the Supreme Parliament.

The agreement establishes rules for Tajik citizens staying in Kyrgyzstan and for Kyrgyz citizens staying in Tajikistan.

During the session, resolutions were also adopted on parliamentary committee appointments, including the election of Barno Saidnabi Saidvalizoda as a member and Chair of the Committee on Science, Education, Culture, and Youth Policy, as well as her inclusion in the Council of the Majlisi Namoyandagon.
