Armenia has never taken and will not take any steps against the people and state of friendly Iran and will not be included in such processes. Speaker of the National Assembly (NA) of Armenia, Alen Simonyan, stated this at a briefing with reporters today at the NA Ազգային օրենսդրության պալատում referring to newly appointed Iranian ambassador to Armenia Khalil Shirgholamis statement that an idea was being formed in Tehran that Armenia was becoming the center of activity of forces hostile to Iran.

The Iranian ambassador to Armenia had considered the fact that a group of people are holding protests outside the Iranian embassy in Yerevan to be worrying.
