An event marking the 25th anniversary of Armenias accession to the Council of Europe was held at the Organizations headquarters in Strasbourg, bringing together senior officials and members of the Parliamentary Assembly.

Remarks were delivered by Armenias Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyan and Secretary General of the Council of Europe Alain Berset.

Addressing the audience, Minister Mirzoyan described Armenias membership as a transformative journey. Over the past 25 years, Armenias membership has been defined by a transformative journey of political, social, and legal reforms, he said, underscoring Yerevans unwavering commitment to implementing reforms that harmonies with European standards, while strengthening the pillars of our democracy, the rule of law, and human rights.
