News.az (29 January 2026)

President Ilham Aliyev has signed an order approving an agreement on cooperation between the interior ministries of Azerbaijan and Georgia, marking a new step in bilateral security and law enforcement collaboration.

Under the order, Azerbaijans Ministry of Internal Affairs will oversee the implementation of the agreements provisions. Meanwhile, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs has been instructed to formally notify the Georgian government once all internal procedures required for the agreements entry into force are completed, News.Az reports, citing Report.

The cooperation agreement was signed on November 21, 2025, in Georgias capital, Tbilisi. It is expected to strengthen coordination between the two countries in areas including public security, law enforcement exchange, and joint institutional development.
