Caliber (3 February 2026)

Russia has reaffirmed its support for Armenias full participation in the Collective Security Treaty Organisation (CSTO), stressing that Yerevan remains a member state with all corresponding rights and obligations.

Armenia remains a member of the CSTO with all rights and obligations. We support Yerevans full participation in the organisations work, as it is an integral element of the countrys security, Russias Foreign Ministry said in response to questions from the media.

The Russian Foreign Ministry noted that Moscow openly shares its assessments with Armenian counterparts regarding Yerevans rapprochement with the European Union. At the same time, it stressed that Russia ՀԱՅԱՍՏԱՆ relations are based on a solid legal and contractual framework that enshrines their allied status.
