In Abu Dhabi talks, Azerbaijans president, Armenian premier note importance of maintaining positive momentum in advancing normalization process on bilateral basis.

Baku and Yerevan on Wednesday agreed to further explore opportunities to expand the bilateral trade and economic cooperation amid talks between Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev and Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan in Abu Dhabi, UAE.

A statement by Azerbaijans presidency following expanded talks between Aliyev and Pashinyan in the Emirati capital said that the two sides welcomed the progress achieved in implementing the outcomes of their summit in Washington, DC in August last year, which were witnessed by US President Donald Trump.
