
EU AND CENTRAL ASIA MAP OUT STRATEGIC PRIORITIES FOR CIVIL SOCIETY

- 06.02.2026

Kazinform News Agency (5 February 2026)

Almas Zhexenbekov

The 6th EU-Central Asia Civil Society Forum has set a new benchmark for regional cooperation, uniting top diplomats, UN leaders, and civic activists in Bishkek to translate high-level strategy into practical action plans for the regions most pressing challenges, Qazinform News Agency cites Kabar.

According to the report, the event was attended by Eduards Striprais, Special Representative of the European Commission for Central Asia; Saira Yzakova, Deputy Minister of Justice of Kyrgyzstan; Antje Grave, UN Resident Coordinator in the Kyrgyz Republic; Simonneto Siligatto, Director of the UNOPS Office; and representatives of the international organizations Global Gateway, the EU Foundation, EU Civil Society Facility CA, UNOPS, and the Danish Institute for Human Rights.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: