
ARMENIA TO SIGN MILITARY COOPERATION DEAL WITH POLAND

- 20.02.2026

The Caspian Post (19 February 2026)

The Ministry of Defense of Armenia will sign a technical-military cooperation agreement with the Ministry of National Defense of Poland. This decision was made during Thursday's Cabinet session of the Armenian government.

"The signing of the agreement will complement the cooperation agenda, creating the basis for close cooperation between the two defense ministries, as well as advancing the agenda of bilateral cooperation," the aforesaid decision states in its explanation, The Caspian Post reports, citing Armenian media.

Also, the agreement aims to establish the basic principles and procedures for cooperation between the two parties in the technico-military sphere, according to which they will cooperate on the basis of the principles of equality, mutual respect, and mutual benefit.
