EU officials held a working visit to Armenia to review progress on a new EU-Armenia Strategic Agenda ahead of a planned trip by Commissioner Marta Kos on 19 March and the first EU-Armenia Summit, with the EU side confirming a €202.5m package for the country.

Talks focused on improving regional connectivity across transport, energy and digital links, according to its statement. Discussions included support for Armenias Crossroads of Peace initiative alongside the EUs Cross-Regional Connectivity Agenda, the European Commission informed on Wednesday.

EU support options were outlined for priority projects identified jointly with Armenia, with trade and mobility among the areas discussed.
