
INDIAN, BRAZILIAN LEADERS VOW TO BOOST BILATERAL TRADE TO $20B OVER NEXT 5 YEARS

-

23.02.2026

Anadolu Agency (21 February 2026)

Ahmad Adil

Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Brazilian President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva on Saturday vowed to boost bilateral trade to $20 billion over the next five years.

Modi held extensive engagements with Lula, who is on a state visit to New Delhi and also attended an AI summit organized by India this week, Indian Ministry of External Affairs spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal said on US social media company X.

Modi said the talks focused on ways to deepen the India-Brazil trade partnership.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: