Cyprus Mirror (24 February 2026)

TRNC President Tufan Erhurman held a one-on-one meeting lasting about one and a half hours with Greek Cypriot leader Nikos Christodoulides at the residence of the UN Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus (UNFICYP) Mission Chief Khassim Diagne.

Speaking to the press after the meeting, Erhurman said the talks were held solely between the two leaders in an open atmosphere.

Erhurman noted that confidence-building measures were the main focus of the discussions. He said small progress had been made, while delays in certain areas were also reviewed. The two sides agreed that their representatives would continue regular meetings, and that the Greek Cypriot representative would formally brief Turkish Cypriot representative Mehmet Dana on issues related to delays. Both leaders agreed to meet again soon, although no date has yet been set.
