Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday began a two-day visit to Israel, meeting with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu to discuss bilateral ties and regional developments.

"We share a close personal relationship, speak often, and I believe that the deep friendship between us powerfully reflects on the ties between our two countries, Netanyahu wrote on US social media company X, calling the Indian premier a good friend.

"We will attend a festive reception at the Knesset, visit an innovation event in Jerusalem, and host Prime Minister Modi for a joint dinner," he added.
