Beijing and Washington are in communication over a planned summit between US President Donald Trump and Chinese President Xi Jinping, Chinas Foreign Ministry said Monday.

The two sides are in communication over President Trumps visit to China, Foreign Ministry spokesman Lin Jian told a news conference.

Beijing's statement came after Trump told UK-based daily Financial Times that he could delay a summit with Xi scheduled between March 31 and April 2, as he urged China to help reopen the Strait of Hormuz, a strategic waterway.
