Kazakhstans Minister of Foreign Affairs, Yermek Kosherbayev, and the Ambassador of the United Arab Emirates to Kazakhstan, Mohammed Al-Ariqi, discussed the current situation in the Middle East and exchanged views on regional security issues, Trend reports via Kazakhstans Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

The parties also acknowledged the robust political discourse between the two nations, alongside the vigorous advancement of trade, economic, and investment collaboration.

Kosherbayev expressed concern over rising tensions in the region and reaffirmed Kazakhstans consistent position in favor of resolving all disputes exclusively through political and diplomatic means in accordance with international law.
