
PUTIN WARNS ARMENIA AGAINST DUAL ALIGNMENT WITH EU AND EURASIAN BLOC

- 02.04.2026

Daily Sabah (1 April 2026)

Russian President Vladimir Putin warned Armenia it cannot simultaneously pursue membership in both the European Union and the Moscow-led Eurasian Economic Union, underscoring growing tensions as Yerevan pivots toward the West.

The warning came as Armenia accelerates its foreign policy shift away from Russia, a move fueled in part by Moscows inaction during Azerbaijan's 2023 operation to liberate Karabakh from Armenian occupation.

The former Soviet republic froze its membership of the Russian-led CSTO security alliance in 2024, and in the same year expressed an interest in joining the European Union, further deepening its rift with Moscow.
