
KAZAKHSTAN AND ARMENIA DEEPEN TIES AMID SHIFTING SOUTH CAUCASUS DYNAMICS

-

10.04.2026

The Astana Times (10 April 2026)

Aida Haidar, Dana Omirgazy

Kazakhstan and Armenia are stepping up efforts to strengthen bilateral ties, with a focus on expanding trade, enhancing transport and transit connectivity, as Foreign Minister Yermek Kosherbayev met with Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan and President Vahagn Khachaturyan in Yerevan on April 9.

Foreign Minister Yermek Kosherbayev with Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan. Photo credit: gov.kz

A key focus of the talks was trade and logistics. Kosherbayev highlighted new opportunities arising from the evolving geopolitical landscape in the South Caucasus, including the resumption of Kazakh grain exports to Armenia via rail routes through Russia, Azerbaijan and Georgia.

Click for more.

Kaynak/Source: