President of Kazakhstan Kassym-Jomart Tokayev and President of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev agreed to adopt a roadmap between the governments of the two countries aimed at further developing trade and economic cooperation, Trend reports via the press service of the Kazakh president.

The agreement was reached following talks between the two leaders in Uzbekistan's Bukhara.

During the meeting, the presidents reaffirmed their strategic commitment to deepening economic partnership. They also agreed to strengthen coordination between their governments to achieve concrete targets in trade and industrial cooperation, highlighting the importance of systematic support for businesses and encouraging greater economic activity.
